

Mauritius Explained

Information Document

Mauritius has established itself as the world's fastest growing international financial centre. The island nation has long set its sights on overtaking Singapore as the world's premier international investment hub.

Nestled in the turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean, Mauritius offers a wealth of opportunities for investors seeking political neutrality and stability alongside robust regulation and investor protection.

A SOPHISTICATED INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CENTRE OF SUBSTANCE

Mauritius has a sophisticated, transparent, and well-regulated international financial centre with a conducive ecosystem offering a complete range of financial products such as treasury management centres, global funds, protected cell companies, captives, family offices and trusts.

A HIGHLY EFFICIENT BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

The business-friendly environment in Mauritius is a key driver for investors. The government has implemented measures to attract foreign investment, such as streamlined regulations, investor-friendly policies, and tax incentives.

The financial services sector in Mauritius is robust and well-developed, offering a wide range of services, including banking, insurance, asset management, and capital markets.

AN ATTRACTIVE TAX ENVIRONMENT

Investors in Mauritius can take advantage of the country's network of Double Taxation Avoidance Treaties (DTAA), which provide tax benefits and help avoid double taxation.

This has attracted businesses from around the world, particularly from countries like the United Kingdom, Sweden, India, China, and South Africa.

KEY INFORMATION

MAURITIUS

Mauritius being a diverse and multicultural nation of 1.3 million people, offers a range of investment opportunities in different sectors.

Its ease of doing business ranking and stable governance creates the perfect business climate possible.

Politically stable and fully secured, the island enforces a strong independent hybrid judiciary system based on the French Code Civil and the British legal System.

Mauritius ranked among the 21 countries considered as "Full Democracy" by the Economist Intelligence Unit in 2022 and is the only country in Africa to be considered as such.

Mauritius topped the Mercer's Quality of Life Index as the African country with the best quality of life in 2019.

Mauritius boasts a strategic location that bridges the gap between Africa and Asia, making it an ideal gateway for businesses looking to tap into these dynamic markets. With its favourable time zone, it facilitates seamless transactions and communication across continents. Moreover, the country's political stability and transparent governance have earned it a reputation as a safe and reliable investment destination.